5. REQUESTING PROCEDURE

A person wishing to access records of AIIM must complete the necessary request form. This form is available from the Information officer or at <http://www.doj.gov.za/> . The form requires the requester to provide the following information:

- Sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify the requester;
- Sufficient information to enable the Information officer to identify the records requested;
- The form of access required;
- The requestor's postal address and fax number;
- Identification of the right sought to be exercised or protected;
- An explanation why the specific record is required to exercise or protect the right;
- The manner in which the requester wishes to be informed of the decision on the request; if the request is made on behalf of a person, the submission of proof of the capacity in which the requester makes the request, to the satisfaction of the Information officer.

Requesters must note that all of the information on the request form should be provided to the satisfaction of the Information Officer, failing which the process will be delayed until such time that the information is complete.

The time periods prescribed by the Act will not commence until such time as the Information officer is satisfied that all pertinent information has been furnished to AIIM by the requester.

It is important to note that access to certain records may or must be denied on grounds set out in the Act. Mandatory grounds for refusal include, but are not limited to:

- Information for the protection of the privacy of a person;
- Information for the protection of the commercial and/or confidential information of third parties;
- Information privileged from production in legal proceedings;
- Commercial information of AIIM;
- Research information;
- Information which can endanger the safety of an individual.

Should the request for information be refused, the requester may lodge a written appeal to the Chairperson of the Board of Directors of AIIM, within 30 calendar days from date of refusal.

6. PRESCRIBED FEES

The nominal fee is R500 per request, which fee may be waived upon motivated request to the Information officer.

The prescribed fees are regulated by the Regulations to the Act, also available on request.

7. AVAILABILITY OF MANUAL

This manual is available for inspection at the offices of the Information Officer.

It is also available at the offices of the Human Rights Commission.
