

CHOIR PROFILE: TSWELOPELE CHORUS

Tswelopele Chorus (TC) was established in July 2015 by Siyabonga Dlamini and Sibusiso Sithole, with the primary objectives of rehearsing and performing choral music, providing musical services to the community, provide a musical for all interested in the greater Pretoria, Johannesburg and Gauteng at large.

Secondarily TC aims to educate its members in singing of all types of choral music, arrange concerts for the general public to attend, perform choral works with other choirs and participate in various competitions and music festivals in the community. The choir currently consists of between 45 and 55 choristers.

In October 2015 the choir participated in their first competition TCMA under the baton of Mr Siyabonga Dlamini, in which it participated in the development section and obtained position 1 overall. In 2016 TC performed in the Standard Section at GACMA competitions and obtained overall position 6.

The choir recently attended the World Choir Games 2018 hosted in Tshwane and received a silver certificate level IV.

TC is an Non-Profit Organisation (registration number: 168-296) registered on March 2016, "Tswelopele" is a sotho word meaning progress.
