Choir Name: Nelson Mandela University Chorale

NMMU Le Strada Chorale is the University's non-auditioning choir. We are committed to bringing together both experienced and first-time singers from all parts of the University and with any (or no) musical background.

The choir gives 2 concerts a year concerts, often performing at the NMMU Summerstrand Campuses. The repertoire is composed mainly of large-scale choral works and classical pieces. We also participate on choral competitions such as the Old Mutual National Choir Festival, Eastern Cape The Melting Pot Arts Festival and SATICA.

The choir was once known as PE Technickon Choir. It has recently changed its name from NMMU Le Strada Chorale to Nelson Mandela University Chorale due to the change of the institution's name from NMMU.

To be a part of Nelson Mandela University Chorale, simply turn up to the weekly rehearsals. You can also email us with any questions at s214183866@nmmu.ac.za
Like our Facebook page, and follow us on Twitter.

As Nelson Mandela University's premier non-auditioning choir anyone is welcome to join – enthusiasm and commitment to the weekly rehearsals is of course essential! We are dedicated to performing consistently to the best of our ability, and we value the dedication of our members. You don't need to be able to read music, as all the notes will be covered in the rehearsal.
