

Choir name: Western Classical Voices

Province: Western Cape

City: Cape Town

Western Classical Voices is a Cape Town Choral choir which was formed in 2014 and was formed not only to perform music but to tutor the young people of Khayelitsha not only music but Academic education (Maths and Physics). It is conducted by Unathi Ngcume.

Western Classical Voices started performing in the Old Mutual National Choir Festival in 2014 and obtained runners up. At the WeCCMA Competition, we obtained position for Vernacular Song in 2014.

The choir has been the vernacular winner for the past two years in the Old Mutual National Choir Festival.

Western Classical Voices dominated the gender based competition for the past two years where they obtained position one in Female category and position 3 for Male category.