Dear Investor

Last year was filled with unforeseen and unexpected events, both locally and abroad. For investors, the turbulent political and economic environment was also a challenge.

At Old Mutual Unit Trusts, we believe that there is no secret to investment success. Financial planning should be for the long term and the short-term volatility shouldn't cause panic that may result in actions that destroy investment value.

Attached is a one-pager explaining why the strategy of chasing 'winners' doesn't work as it won't result in delivering on your long-term goals.

You can also watch the video of Peter Brooke, Head of MacroSolutions Boutique at Old Mutual Investment Group, who explains the extreme moves we've seen in the markets and shares tips on how you can make the often bumpy market ride a little smoother.

Regards
Elize
