INTRODUCTION

In the last decade, risk in agriculture has changed significantly.

At a local and global level, natural and man-made risks, as well as financial, political, legislative, technological, environmental, and social changes had a severe impact, and continue to do so.

- At Old Mutual Insure, we understand the challenges involved with protecting agricultural risks and the impact that unforeseen events can have on the long-term sustainability of an agricultural producer's business.
- We also understand the importance of food security for society and that agriculture touches everyone.
- That is why Old Mutual Insure was first to offer asset specific agriculture products in the South African insurance market.
- Today, we still continue as leaders in agriculture insurance innovation, your agricultural insurance partner for generations.
- Old Mutual Insure has been doing great things for more than a century by protecting agricultural asset and liability risks on a daily basis, adding value to the agriculture industry, and contributing to communities and the economy in general.
- We are proud of the role we play in the agricultural sector by protecting agricultural risk and creating positive futures.

INSURANCE SOLUTIONS TO SUIT YOUR INDIVIDUAL NEEDS

agriplus

- With products like agriplus we offer holistic risk-protection solutions for the agricultural producer's agricultural asset and liability risks.
- This product offers broad-based solutions and the ability to offer a custom-made solution to the individual customer's needs.
- The agricultural producer's business and personal assets and related liability risk can be protected under one policy.
- This includes risk protection for private houses and household contents, personal effects, farm buildings and contents, business equipment (including tractors, harvesters, planters and other commercial and specialised agricultural equipment), commercial and private motor vehicles, pumps and irrigation systems, livestock, personal and public liability risks, theft, electronic and precision farming equipment fidelity guarantee, personal accident, business interruption and many more, depending on your unique risk protection needs.

agriwine

The agriwine product provides additional cover for the wine industry and related risks, such as cover for:

- reinstatement costs for grapevines (and trellises, if required) resulting from damage caused by a fire,
- wine and related products for which the insured must provide services on behalf of clients (other than property belonging to the insured, held in trust or on commission for a specific service delivery), and
- wine tanks and vats, the bag of the wine press machine, as well as the membranes inside the wine filtering machines.
