

FROM OLD MUTUAL SUPERFUND

Dear Member,

For those who are on the verge of retirement, the COVID-19 pandemic has been a terrifying experience. Not only are the health implications of the virus at their most severe for older people, but the negative financial impact on savings and retirement funds has been seen worldwide.

We all know that it's very important to save enough for our retirement. However, there's more to a happy retirement than just money. There are 7 questions you may not have asked yourself about retirement, but probably should, as you plan for your future.

In addition to asking yourself these 7 questions, we also provide steps you can take to make positive changes today.

Click here to access these questions and suggested steps for you to consider.

Remember: It's your retirement, so plan properly to be able to live it the way you want.

Regards

The Old Mutual SuperFund
